“Light tomorrow with today.”

— Elizabeth Barrett Browning
Our Vision

The Foundation will leverage and use its philanthropic resources to foster a region where residents have access to medical care, where quality education is supported and valued and where people respect and care for one another.

Our Mission Statement

To wisely assess needs and channel donor resources to maximize community well-being.

Letter from the Board Chair and President & CEO

This year we have worked with many not-for-profit organizations to provide them with training and capacity building grants. A new partnership with the City of Anniston presented the opportunity to administer their charitable dollars set aside for the not-for-profits located within the City, serving the residents of Anniston. As this was a new process to many of the agencies, we conducted listening sessions to better understand their needs and then designed training sessions to prepare them for this new step. This new challenge encouraged us to reach out to other leaders in our region and ask for assistance to be grant reviewers. A lot has been learned through this opportunity and many not-for-profits are on their way to better serving their clients and community.

It has been an honor to work with our donors, scholarship & grant recipients, and not-for-profit organizations to carry out their philanthropic wishes. Each grant made to a not-for-profit, and each scholarship awarded to a student continues the work reflected in our mission statement. The pages that follow showcase these efforts through numbers, photos and stories. Generous donors support the good work of organizations which focus on community and economic development, health and human services, education, children and families, arts and culture, and more. New funds have been created to address specific needs important to the donors. The Community Foundation of Northeast Alabama (CFNEA) is a family of funds that serve as a permanent endowment for the benefit of residents in its geographic area within northeast Alabama.

The board of trustees worked diligently this year to create a Strategic Plan to guide us through the next three years. This plan outlines our initiatives, objectives and goals and is shared on Page 19 of this report. Providing insight in the development of this plan, a Community Needs Assessment was conducted to guide us in focusing our efforts in the areas needing improvement. The in-depth report is shared throughout the community and is available on our website. Standards for Excellence certification was introduced to our not-for-profits this year. Together with the United Way of East Central Alabama, 25 organizations completed the three-day training with nine organizations completing the nearly year-long process and applying for certification.

Our growth over the year is credited to the strong leadership and oversight provided by the trustees. This year three exceptional trustees were added; Martha G. Lavender, R.N., D.S.N, of Etowah County; Newman R. (Rod) Nowlin, Jr., of Talladega County; and Thomas S. Potts, Jr., of Calhoun County. We are grateful for their expertise, leadership and support. Our trustees support the philanthropic work of the Foundation, through their time, expertise, donations and/or the creation of a fund and more. We continue to serve as the region’s primary philanthropic partner, expanding our presence in all nine counties.

One hundred years ago, the community foundation concept was born in the Midwest, giving rise to a new philanthropy, a new way of participating in community, and a new vision for the future.

Today, the Community Foundation of Northeast Alabama is one of more than 700 community foundations across the United States that invite everyday people with a vision and a passion for community to create something together: For good. Forever. These organizations collectively manage more than $48 billion in assets and make grants of approximately $4.5 billion a year to improve life in their communities. This philanthropic model has spread beyond U.S. borders, with approximately 1,700 community foundations established worldwide.

We encourage you to visit our website, follow us on Facebook and learn more about how we impact the community.

Donor Impact Through Grants

Awards total $110,658

Anne Carruth, Community Investment Committee Chair says, “All assets of the Community Foundation support grant-making efforts for the betterment of the region.”

Each year, the Board of Trustees of the Community Foundation awards grants to deserving not-for-profit organizations who need financial support for specific projects in areas such as healthcare, education, human services, and capacity building. By connecting needed funds to deserving charitable needs, the Foundation improves the quality of life for its citizens. For a historical perspective of our grant making, visit the Grants section of our website.

Goals to strengthen the community through grants are outlined by Community Counts Measuring Progress in Northeast Alabama which pinpoints the areas for improvement. The study is conducted every 5 years and shared with the community. Utilizing the existing grant allocation process, the Community Foundation oversees the distribution of awards to qualified not-for-profit organizations. This comprehensive review includes an on-line grant application; documentation of the proposed project; assessment of the grantee’s overall capacity to manage and administer the project; and, site visits by community volunteers, trustees and staff to assess the outcomes. In addition, every Community Foundation grant undergoes follow-up documentation including quarterly progress reports, outcome data and site visits.

Thank you - 2013 Community Investment Committee Members! The following volunteers have donated their time and expertise to review grants awarded from funds whose goal is to support local not-for-profits and support their efforts to improve services they offer: Anna Berry, Anne Carruth, Cheryl Potts, Chip Howell, Dave Crum, Debbie Pfeifferer, Denise Meadows, Elizabeth Wheatley, Eula Tatman, Gary Lewis, Heather Lamey, Jack Swift, Jacqueline Love, Jennifer S. Maddox, Jill Heishman, Justin Overton, Kay Davis, Margaret Morton, Mari Chandler, Martha Lavender, Mitchell Rogers, Peggy Grubbs, Peggy Mann, Rod Nowlin, Shannon Jenkins, Shannon LaBudde, Susan Waldron, Susan Williamson, Tikesha Cosper, Tommie Goggans, Tycoma Miller. Many of these individuals serve as executive directors of not-for-profits in the nine counties served by the Foundation. Foundation trustees, staff and community volunteers complete the committee.

Establish a Fund with Us

We offer donors the ability to establish a variety of funds to meet their philanthropic goals. By establishing a fund with the Community Foundation, you receive much of the flexibility and many of the benefits of your own private foundation with the tax advantages and simplicity of a community foundation. You choose to give to the not-for-profits of your choice through the various types of charitable funds we offer. You may even choose to create a planned gift which will provide support to the organization(s) you choose in perpetuity. As the donor, you name and design the fund. Unless anonymity is preferred, the name that you select is listed in the Foundation’s reports, grant award letters, scholarship certificates or distribution checks, maintaining your charitable presence in the community.

Learn more about the types of funds you can create on our website.

The Longleaf Fund

Invest in meaningful projects or initiatives in your community.

The Longleaf Fund is supported by individuals and families who understand that a community’s needs and strengths are constantly changing. Such donors are committed to supporting the Community Foundation’s efforts to create a sustainable pool of unrestricted charitable dollars to invest in meaningful community impact projects or initiatives. We are committed to meeting our community’s needs and have set a goal of $1 million for the fund.

Thousands of years ago the ocean claimed all the land up to the northern counties of Alabama. The Longleaf Pine was a familiar and dominant tree which has endured and survived. To acknowledge this natural wonder and its value to northeast Alabama, the Community Foundation has named its unrestricted and community impact fund in honor of this unique tree. Like the Longleaf Pine, the Community Foundation of Northeast Alabama is permanent and will remain as a philanthropic resource benefiting area residents.

Grant-making: All assets of the Community Foundation support grant-making efforts for the betterment of the region. This is also the main function of the Longleaf Fund. Grants from the Fund will allow the Board of Trustees to provide funding to support those discernible community needs that are most pressing and lack sufficient resources.

How to Contribute: Donors may make immediate tax deductible gifts in any amount to the Foundation. Deferred gifts may be made through a will, trust, or contract such as an IRA designation, life insurance assignment, real estate deed or other personal property. These can be designated for the benefit of the Community Foundation of Northeast Alabama in support of a specific fund or to establish a new fund.
Gene Inglis Music Scholarship Fund

Music to My Ears

"I love what I do," Gene Inglis

Pictured above during a class, Gene Inglis loves music and has a gift for encouraging students to play. For 10 years he has followed his passion and led the band at Saks High School. Over the past decade, the band has formed an award winning program. Shelves full of trophies line the walls of the band room. In 2007, a scholarship fund was created to support the expenses and fees associated with participation in a middle or high school band program. The fund benefits students who could not otherwise afford to experience this opportunity. If you would like to support the Gene Inglis Scholarship Fund, you may do so through the Community Foundation of Northeast Alabama.

"Gene is a most engaging man. The quality of music the Saks band creates as a result of his direction is superior. The students love and respect Mr. Inglis almost like they would an uncle or other adult family member. Certainly the bond between student and band director is much closer than with any other teacher."

– Butch Kreh

Tyanna Waites plays clarinet. "You can make a difference through music & share it with others."

Lakeisha Thornton has played the trumpet for three years. "I want to pursue a degree in music. I love it and am very grateful to have the horn to play."

Darius Boyd plays trombone. "My goal is to play for the University of Alabama or University of Florida."

Thanawat Promraj plays trumpet and baritone. "It's fun to make music with the horn."

Harry M. & Edel Y. Ayers Scholarship Fund

Since inception, the Harry M. & Edel Y. Ayers Scholarship Fund has awarded $41,000. The fund provides scholarships in appreciation of the service of past employees and the contributions of current employees. Scholarship recipients may attend any accredited college, university, technical or trade school located in Alabama either on a full-time or part-time basis. Awards are available for undergraduate, graduate or post-graduate studies to assist the scholarship recipient in pursuing a degree or certificate in a field of his or her election and for his or her personal benefit.

Tikesha Cosper joined the staff in May of 2013 to serve as Evans Litigation Scholarship Data Entry Specialist. In addition to processing scholarship applications, Tikesha provides administrative support for the Foundation.

Courtney Carlisle attends Jacksonville State University majoring in nursing. After graduation she plans to work as an Emergency Department nurse at St Vincent’s Hospital.

Courtney says "This scholarship has not only been an honor to receive but has helped finance my education." Courtney was a recipient of the Harry M. & Edel Y Ayers Scholarship.

Phil Sanguinetti, President of The Anniston Star, has been a big supporter of the Ayers Scholarship through the years.

Compliance

“Adopting and adhering to high standards is the best way we can demonstrate our ongoing commitment to our donors and the entire community,” says Jennifer S. Maddox, President and CEO. “We are committed to reaffirming the trust and integrity that are a hallmark of our Foundation.”

The Community Foundation of Northeast Alabama remains in compliance with the National Standards for U.S. Community Foundations in critical areas of operations including Mission, Structure, and Governance; Resource Development; Stewardship and Accountability; Grant Making and Community Leadership; Donor Relations; and Communications.

National Standards for U.S. Community Foundations were designed to demonstrate transparency and financial responsibility. In addition, they also guide governing boards to adopt sound policies and practices and help build capacity of the community foundations to carry out their missions. The Community Foundation received compliance in 2006 and recompliance in the fall of 2011.
Planned Gifts — The Anvil Society

In 1833, the Snow and Simmons families settled in what we know today as the city of Oxford. They soon discovered an abundance of iron ore, which resulted in the establishment of the Cane Creek Furnace at Morrisville in 1840. Mining and refining the ore expanded with the construction in 1862 of the Oxford Furnace and Ohatchee’s Janney Iron Furnace in 1863. When Samuel Noble and business partner, General Daniel Tyler visited Calhoun County in 1872 they formed the Woodstock Iron Company and founded the city of Anniston. With this heritage in mind, The Community Foundation of Northeast Alabama formally established The Anvil Society, a legacy program that honors individuals or families who help shape and forge a stronger future for our community.

Membership in The Anvil Society is perpetual and recognizes those who have arranged a planned gift to the Community Foundation.

Various gifts may be designated as contributions:

- Will or testamentary gift
- Charitable gift annuity, charitable trust or other split-interest gift.
- Deferred gift of cash, stock or other personal property.
- Contract gift such as life insurance, IRA designation or real estate deed.
- Other gifts such as: a royalty, patent rights, timber rights, lease or note.

If you would like to learn more about a planned gift through your will or estate, please contact: Jennifer S. Maddox, President & CEO, Community Foundation of Northeast Alabama 256-235-5160, ext. 25 jmaddox@yourcommunityfirst.org.

Juliette P. Doster Award
for Outstanding Volunteerism in Community Health

The winner – Bruce Edward Cunningham, DMD of Jacksonville volunteers with the Interfaith Adult Dental Clinic. Dr. Cunningham assisted in organizing the free dental clinic in 2008. He is noted for his compassionate heart for those in need, his guidance and tireless efforts. In addition to volunteering his clinical services in the free clinic, Dr. Cunningham has helped secure donations for the clinic’s space, support staff, equipment and supplies. As a professional, he is well respected and recognized by his peers for his vision, guidance and tireless efforts in caring for residents in need of dental care and not able to afford it.

Dr. Cunningham receives a $1,000.00 grant from the Susie Parker Stringfellow Health Fund to a not-for-profit organization of his choice, Interfaith Adult Dental Clinic. His name will be added to an engraved plaque noting the many hours of services performed in the community. Pictured left with Juliette P. Doster, Dr. Cunningham receives an engraved clock commemorating his many hours of service.

Honorable Mention, Glen Jones of Piedmont is recognized for his work with the Food Bank to residents of Piedmont. Sandra Keener, Administrator of the Piedmont Health Care Center says, “Not only is Glen a role model for our younger generation, he is also someone we can all pattern ourselves after.”

Honorable Mention, Harvey Roberts of Anniston was recognized for his volunteer efforts in the creation and growth of the Beans and Rice ministry at St. Michael and All Angels Episcopal Church. Over the past three years the program has grown by leaps and bounds. Started with a handful of volunteers, the program served about 80 people the first month of the ministry. Currently more than 200 hundred people receive fresh fruits, vegetables, baked goods and pantry items each month. Through his efforts, those individuals receiving food have become volunteers in distributing food. Described as the “ultimate servant”, Mr. Roberts loves to do for others.

The award recognizes personal commitment, overall impact and extraordinary service in promoting or advancing community health in Calhoun County. This year’s recipient was selected from an impressive list of volunteers.

Past recipients of this award include: George Arena, Calhoun County Head Injury Foundation; Bibby Cunningham, Salvation Army Women’s Auxiliary; Lolan Granger, ARC of Calhoun County; Eleanor Youngblood and Tony Arena, St. Michael’s Clinic; Jean Flanders, Medical Center Memorial Foundation; Karen Morris, Health Services Center; Dr. Brenda Roberts, American Cancer Society; Helen Henley, RMC Chaplain Services; Margaret Taylor, Steel Magnolias Breast Cancer Support Group and, Myrna Degner, RMC Auxiliary.
